WHITE DEER

It all begins along an enchanting little road that snakes through the woods towards San Lorenzo Mountain Lodge, a former hunting lodge dating from the sixteenth century whose warm and reassuring atmosphere is integrated harmoniously into the unspoiled forests of Val Pusteria.

Giorgia and Stefano's passion for restoring the residence's former glory has given us today a jewel of rare and refined beauty, unique in the Dolomites...

A TRULY UNIQUE REFUGE

When renovating the historically and valuable "Unterramwaldhof", Giorgia and Stefano Barbini took great care to respect the balance between tradition and innovation. In cooperation with the protection of monuments authority and with the support of local craftsmen they were able to renovate the estate in such a way that the original structure and its characteristic features were preserved, achieving a model of sustainability that may well serve as an example for similar projects.
